

OUR CORPORATE CHRISTMAS PACKAGE

HITTING TARGETS is perfect as a corporate Christmas activity whether for structured team building, learning about goal setting or just as a really fun staff or client reward.

These sessions are fun and are structured at strengthening client and staff working relationships and are ideal for networking. The participants will feel empowered and exhilarated and simply have an awesomely fun end of year Christmas themed team event.

Clay Target Shooting is an activity for any age, fitness and even mobility. The girls are just as good as the guys. And the fittest, strongest and most coordinated are not always the best at it.

This makes it an excellent corporate activity – where a little determination and focus can go a long way.
